Man Shall Not Live By Bread Alone

5 Essential Biblical Truths · By Sonia Beguide

There are truths we hear all our lives without ever truly receiving them. This morning, the Word came to remind us of something essential: the life you are looking for is not where you are looking for it. Main references: Deuteronomy 8:3 | Matthew 4:4.

READING TIME: 4–5 MIN

"You must obey the voice to see the glory."

— Dr Raoul Wafo, June 28, 2026

I — There are two dimensions to your life

The natural dimension — bread, what you see, what you touch, what you build with your hands. And the spiritual dimension — the Word, the origin of everything that is visible. Many people still ignore the fact that the things of the natural have their source in the supernatural (John 1:1-4). We exhaust ourselves chasing results without ever going back to the source.

> "If the time you spend in the Word is less than the time you spend on your appearance, you are still in the flesh."
> DR RAOUL WAFO

No skill, no human connection will take you where only a spiritual foundation can. You must anchor your life to what goes beyond the visible.

II — A covenant sustains your life

There are things that happen in your life not because you prayed, but because Heaven committed itself to making them happen. Abraham is your father. You are not poor (Acts 3:25 | Galatians 3:27-29).

> "Some tragedies are miracles in disguise. If you avoid certain deserts, you will never become who you are meant to be."
> DR RAOUL WAFO

God cannot speak to you and not keep His Word. It is written, it is sealed, it is irreversible (Numbers 23:19 | Joshua 21:45 | Jeremiah 1:12). Your dimension depends on your source — not your background.

III — The power of life is found in the Word

Only what is conceived by the Word has unshakeable foundations. Bread is for survival. The Word is for life. They are not the same thing. Many people are living in survival mode when God has designed life in abundance. The Word is the initiator of your well-being — not the economy, not the market, not your contacts.

> "Heaven and earth will pass away. But the Word will never pass away."
> MATTHEW 24:35

IV — Obedience connects you to the Word

You can know the Word. You can quote it, meditate on it, teach it. But if you do not obey, you will not see God. Obedience is acting on the basis of what God has told you — not what is comfortable, not what is logical, but what He told you.

The faith of Abel, Noah, Abraham — it was not theology, it was costly obedience (Hebrews 11:4, 7-8, 27). There is a dimension of joy in life you will never know if you have not stepped into your calling. Do not obey because it is convenient. Obey because you must. Learn to love the cost of obedience.

V — Prosperity is gradual

Once the Word has made its way through your soul, everything is just a matter of time (3 John 2). Your prosperity is not the result of your ability — it is the result of a covenant.

> "The wealth of my life is not where I live — it is the One who covers me where I live."
> DR RAOUL WAFO

Never trust what people say when God has spoken to you. Do not ask for the opinions of men when you have already received the Word of Heaven. When you pursue the motivations of God, His favor accompanies you. Not sometimes. All the time.

In closing

The Word this morning asks one simple yet profound question: what has your faith already led you to do concretely? Take the time to answer it.

Hold on,
we are in this together.
